REMARKS.-The market for Flour opened ball, with a tendency of prices downward. Receipts have been moderate, and stocks have men somewhat decreased by shipment to Eastemports. We note a decline of 25c on Extra and Family brands, at which the market closes dall. We quote: Supers 7 50a$7 75; Extras 8 75a 5); Family 10aS10 50; choice 10aS10 50. Wheat has been in light receipt, the demand good all week, and prices have advanced fully 5e on choice lots. We note shipment of one or two cargoes to Southern ports during the week. Offerings to-day of 144 bushels white and 1894 of red, with sales of the former at 207 for prime, and of the latter at 200 and 208 for very good and choice lots. Corn is in light receipt, with an active demand by millers, and the market closes at an advance of 2a3e; offerings of 166 bushels mixed and 68 of yellow, with sales of the former at 67, and of the latter at 64. Rye is quiet and unchanged. Oats are in good enquiry from store for seed; no arrivals. Prime Butter is in active request and source, while the market is overstocked with inferior qualities. Eggs are in light receipt and the demand closes active at an advance of 2sile. Bacon is very firm, at an advance of I to ic on Sides and Shoulders. The arrivals of Dressed Hogs are light, with a good demand. Poultry is active, with light receipts: small Turkeys are in especial enquiry. Stock of Salt is very light, and prices are unchanged. We note arrival by steamer during the week of and sucks of Fine. There is no lump Plaster in market; demand fair. Seeds are active. Onions are scarce and wanted at an advance. Potatoes are searce and in fair enquiry.

ALEXANDRIA CATTLE MARKET, February 28. The offerings of Cattie, Hogs and Sheep this week were fully equal to the demand, though the sales were inuen larger, and the prices debast. The spirit of enterprise evinced by the Eizens of Alexandria in the erection and estabshmett et one of the linest and best appointed Market Houses in the whole country, was fully met by the butchers cheerfully according to the premiums and rents placed upon the stalls by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, and in their purchasing this week the most superior grades, at high prices, of all kinds of stock with which to grace the new building, and at the some time eater to the taste of the greatest epi cures. We quote Cattle this week at from 5 to 75c; Heg-74c 75c; Sneep 75 to 83.

BALTIMORE CATTLE, MARKET, February 27. Prices to-day for Beef Cattle ranged as fol-Best Beeves at 6 25a$7 62; generally rated first quality at 5 25a$6 25; medium to good fair quality at 4 50a$5 25; ordinary thin Steers, Oxen and Cows at 3 50a$4 50; inferior and lowest grades of Cattle 0 00aS0 00-general average of the market to-day $5 25; extreme range of prices 3 50aS7 62. Most of the sales were from 4 75 to $600 per 100 lbs. Total receipts for the week 1090 head, against 1361 last week, an 810 head same time last year. Total sales for the week 1019 head, against 1215 ast week, and 755 head same time last year. The quality throughout was superior to the ofbrings of last week, though we cannot quote any advance, considering quality, unless it be in the middle grades, on which there might have been a slight improvement. Sheep-There is a large increase in the receipts since last week, but the demand has been commensurate with it, and there is no change to note in the quotations. The quality of the arrivals e nerally has been of a very good grade. We quote fair to ex ra Sheep at base per lb grossthe very superior lot, averaging 192 lbs gross brought 10c. Receipts this week 2404 head. Higs-There is some little decrease in the receipts this week, as compared with the light run of last week, and the pens are now quite bare, with but little prospect of any heavy run in excess of the wants of this market. In consequence of these facts prices have regularly advanced since last week, and now, with higher prices West and in Philadelphia, the rates here must her ssarily go higher before any reaction takes place. We quote the last sales at 7 25a$7 624 per 100 lbs net, and 7 75a$8 net could be realized for prime Hogs if Lero. Receipts 5113 head.

GEORGETOWN CATTLE MARKET, February 27. There were 500 Cattle, 600 Sheep and 20 Cows and Caves offered to-day. The market opened very dull, with a downward tendency in price; but closed active, with sales of all the Cattle at from to Te; Sheep 5 to 8t; Cows and Calves 30 to

LYNCHBURG MARKET, Feb. 27 .- Prices for Tebacco still, and market animated. Flour and Grain unchanged. Receipts of Wheat very ight Corn scarce. Outs in moderate supply. Wheat 165a190 for fair to prime red and white; Corn 70a75; Oats 55a57½; Rye 70a72½

RICHMOND MARKET, Febr'y. 27.—Offerings of Grain very light. Abou. 1000 bushels of Wheat were offered, with sales of white at 150a 215 for 215 for ord-nary to choice, and red at 190a215 for Sales of Corn reported on private terms. Nothing doing in Rye or Oats. FREDERICKSBURG MARKET, February 27 .-Very little doing, and quotations with cut change since last week, viz: Wheat nominally 180 c225 for prime to choice white and red; Corn 58a60;

Rye 78a80, and Oats 45a50. SALE OF STOCKS -Sheriff Wright, of Richmond, soid at auction, on Wednesday, a $1000 Norfolk city bond for $650; 200 shares of Virginia Central R. R. stock, par value $100, for $32.50 per share; about $1338 of State bonds at $5.5 on the hundred. Eight bonds of the late

Confederate States were offered, but there was no bid for them. One hundred and fifty shares of the stock of the Bank of the Commonwealth were also offered, but no bid for them made. OFFICE POTOMAC FERRY CO., Washington, Feb. 28, 1873.

LOCAL NEWS.

DEATH OF REV. PETER KROES .- Our citizens, without denominational distinction, will, we are sure, regret to learn that the late venerable pastor of St. Mary's Church, died, at-Georgetown College, last night. His health had been much worse since his removal from Alexandria, as it seemed that the excitement consequent upon the performance of his pastoral duties had long kept bim up, and he came to the place he had fixed upon for his future residence, but to find it the vestibule of Father Kroes was born in a portion of Holland new under Prussian rule, on the 1st of May, 1805, and was, therefore, in his sixty-eighth year. His childhood was passed amid the stormy scenes of the French Revolution, and he remembered when soldiers were billetted upon his father, and had seen the fugitives flying from the field of Waterloo; his residence being, at that time, sufficiently near to enable him to hear the cannon which swept away the power of the great Napoleon.

He was a man of great natural talent, always leading his classes at school, and he had received a superior education, his collegiate and theological course, alone, embracing fourteen years. He was able to speak and write fluently seven or eight languages. He came to this country wowards of forty years ago, and, having been already ordained priest, joined the Jesuit order. He was first employed in the missions around Frederick, Md.; was then pastor of Trinity Church, Georgetown, for seven years; was afterwards stationed at St. Thomas's Manor, near Port Alexandria in 1856 Of his services here, we have spoken on a former occasion.

Though devoted to the faith in which he had been born and reared, and of which he was a worthy minister, Father Kroes sought to draw others to it, not by attacks upon their religious pinions, but by the example of his own humle and mortified lefe; and while he severely was ever indulgent to their errors when they promised reformation. To children, in particular, he was greatly attached, and few were those who did not know and love him. When able to do so, there was no school examination or exhibition which he did not attend, and the born at the Mansion House a f.w days ago interest he displayed in the advancement of with no sign of a face-the head being as round the young people in the schools was that of a as a ball and completely covered with the same father. Miss Bettie Keyes, whose modest deportment, gentle grace and sweet voice, won golden encomiums from all.

Recluse was represented by Mr. W. H. Daniels, who deserves great praise for the manner in which he engineered the affair.

We would like, if space would allow, to give a minute description of the parts assumed by the Misses Hunter, Hooge, Arnold, Brengle, Manly, Higgins, Clifford, Pollard, Dorsey (Flora and Katie) Greenaway, Ward and others, but as we have not the space, suffice it to say, that all parts were well sustained and nicely rendered.

Santlower was represented by a young man, who was arrayed in a very "Dolly Varden" costume of "yaller." His first appearance upon the stage came near creating a stampede among the timid, who were, doubtless, under the impression it was a huge flag denoting the proximity of some dread disease, but as soon as the people were aroused to a realization of the "bouffe" character, alarm gave way to merriment and mirth. Music-The piano was gracefully presided over by Miss Alice Thomas, accompanied by violip. &c. The entertainment will be repeated to-night, and we have no hesitancy in urging all who d sire spending a pleasant evening to go, for we are confident that Flora (no matter how charming here parterre may be,) would experience great pleasure in gazing upon such a beautiful cluster of flowers as was displayed last night, and it is no wonder, therefore, that those present at the exhibition were completely enchanted in witnessing such an array of choice dazzling hues and fascinating sweetness. POTOMAC FERRY COMPANY. - The following well merited praise of the executive officers of the Potomac Ferry Company is taken from the Culpeper Observer of yesterday: "We are glad to see the notices of praise and commendation, bestowed by the press upon the Potomac Steam Ferry company of Washington, and its active, enterprising and energetic President. S. S. Howison, esq., a native of Frederick-burg and a Virginian all over. Mr. Howison is assisted in his labors by the skill and mechanical ability of the jovial, genial superintendent of the boats, Capt. Sam. Gedney, a scientific engineer, by education and experience. The manner in which the steamers between Washington and Alexandria is managed, reflects the highest credit upon Mes-rs. Howison and Gedney, and without being invidious, we may sav that no more careful and competent Capt. navigate the river, than our venerable friend Poir, of the "City of Washington," who we have favorably known for forty years, and Spranzy of later acquaintanceship. We are glad to see that the Wawaset, under command of her worthy and excellent master Capt. Fowlkes, also of this line and company, is expected to resume her trips to Cone in time for the Inauguration on the 4th of March, thus affording the people on both sides of the Potomac a chance to see the pageant. With characteristic liberality the Ferry company have built a spacious saloon on the upper deck of the Wawaset, added comfortable State-rooms, and made great improvements generally and furniture especially. Our excellent friend, Wheeler, universally kind, polite and popular, continues as Purser and Clerk, and Willie Fowikes, son of the Captain, still "sticks" as 1st mate. We hope the Wa waset will bring up a crowd from the Northern Neck, and "may we be there to see!" The Wa-

LIBRARY DIRECTORY .- A meeting of the new Board of Directors of the Library Company was held last night at which there were present S. H. Janney, President, and J. S. Blackburn, K. Kemper, W. B. Gregory, P. B. Hooe, S. C. Boush, E. S. Leadbeater, H. Latham and E. Snowden, jr. E. Snowden, jr., was chosen Vice-President, J. S. Blackburn, Secretary, and E. S. Leadbeater, Treasurer. Mis. E. M. Young, was re-elected Librarian for the ensuing year, and the President and Treasurer were appointed a committee to release the present room for the use of the Library. The resignation of J. R. Smoot as a director was tendered and accepted and the filling of the vacancy thus occasioned postponed until the next meeting, at which time the standing committees will be announced. The Treasurer give notice that the certificates of membership, which will expire on the first of April, will be ready in about two weeks, and the members of the Board were urged to exert themselves to secure, in addition to the present subscribers, as many new ones as possible. It was also determined, as soon as possible, to make further additions to the books and to this end efforts will be made to replenish the treasury of the company. After the transaction of a good deal of business connected with the conduct of the Library, the meeting adjourned subject to the call of the President.

APPOINTMENT TENDERED TO AN ALEXAN-DRIAN. - The Petersburg Index has a flattering notice of Mr. Richard J. Collins, as teacher in St John's Academy, who it states, has been appointed teacher of St. Joseph's School, in that city, and will assume the duties of that position in a few days. We learn, however, that the statement is correct only so far as the Tobacco, Md.; subsequently served as Vice President of the College of the Holy Cross, at Worcester, Massichusetts, and as an assistant offered was higher than is paid any of the at St. Mary's Church, Boston; and came to principals of our public schools here, and his acceptance was insisted upon after a first refusal, with a modesty which is rare enough, among young men of his age, he declined assuming a responsibility to which he feared he might not be equal, and will remain in Alexandria. Mr. Collins has been clerk of our City School Board since its organization, in April, 1871, and though very young for so important a poreprehended the faults of those whom it was sition, he has discharged the duties devolving his duty to guide in the paths of justice, he on him to the perfect satisfaction of all connected with the public school system, and has won for himself the respect and confidence of all who have business with the office.
